Into the swim

Under warm, sunny skies and amidst the waters of a refreshing Lake Leelanau, nearly 100 swimmers stroked their way through the Fourth Annual Leelanau Open Water Swim Challenge, held July 22nd at Nedows Bay Beach in Leland. The event, sponsored by Traverse, the Magazine and The Powerhouse Tavern of Lake Leelanau, raised about $500 to help support a therapeutic swim program for Multiple Sclerosis patients in the region.

The pack that churned and frothed the lake waters was led by Ann Arbor's Dan Stephenson, the three-mile victor with a time of 1:14:52. Women's three-mile champion, at 1:19:46, was Patricia Leahy of Bloomfield Hills. The locals struck back in the one-mile race, with Leland's Jim Mello and Frankfort's Marilyn Early reigning as men's and women's winners. Mello swam the course in 32:34, while Early was on his heels at 32:46.

A special thanks from the magazine, the Powerhouse and MS goes out to all who participated in the swim challenge. For information on next year's race, contact Traverse, the Magazine, 121 S. Union, Traverse City, MI, 49684, or call 941-8174.
